RICHARD V. JARMUSIK JOINS CIBER FEDERAL SOLUTIONS DIVISION
As Vice President and Business Unit Leader of Civilian Programs

MCLEAN, Va. – July 9, 2007 – CIBER, Inc. (NYSE: CBR) has hired Richard V. Jarmusik as Vice President and Business Unit Leader of Civilian Programs in CIBER’s Federal Solutions Division. In this role, Mr. Jarmusik will be responsible developing client relationships, nurturing business growth, enhancing operational efficiency, and expanding CIBER’s market position.

Mr. Jarmusik comes to CIBER from Falls Church, Va.-based Computer Sciences Corporation, where he spent more than 8 years in various executive-level marketing, consulting, business development, and operations positions. He has also held numerous senior-level positions with other leading IT firms, such as Digital Equipment Corporation (DEC) and Unisys Corporation.

“Rich brings more than 25 years of experience in executive level planning, sales management, and operational management for commercial, public sector, and financial markets,” said Marcia M. Kim, President, CIBER Federal Solutions Division. “We’re quite pleased he will lead our continued growth in federal government civilian programs, to demonstrate CIBER’s significant expertise in this market, and to further expand our market position.”

Most recently, Mr. Jarmusik was Vice President of Federal Benefits Programs for CSC, where he ran the division’s operations and nurtured its growth. Under his leadership, the division grew from $50M to more than $134 million in annual revenue, serving clients such as the Department of Education, Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), Veterans Administration (VA), as well as the life sciences-focused agencies of Health and Human Services (HHS), National Institutes of Health (NIH), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Social Security Administration (SSA), and Department of Defense Health Affairs.

“I’m very excited about joining CIBER, where I hope to make a positive contribution to a growing company and to help Federal clients meet and exceed their mission objectives,” Mr. Jarmusik said.
