CIBER IN SWEDEN ACQUIRES CONDEVOR AB
Significant Addition to CIBER's SAP Business in the Nordic Region

STOCKHOLM, Sweden and GREENWOOD VILLAGE, Colo. – Oct. 15, 2007 – CIBER, Inc. (NYSE: CBR) today announced a major expansion of its SAP capabilities in Sweden with the acquisition of Condevor AB, a specialist SAP consultancy company based in Stockholm, Malmö and Gothenburg. The acquisition of Condevor brings with it 33 SAP specialists with a particular focus on the utility, customer resource management, and services markets.

This acquisition strengthens CIBER's position in the Swedish market as a leading vendor of SAP services and associated systems integration expertise.

"Condevor has a strong track record in the local market and we are very impressed with the skills and expertise of their SAP consultants," said Ann-Catrine Appelquist, Managing Director of CIBER Sweden. "We are delighted that they are now part of the CIBER family."

Eva Cederlöf, Condevor CEO, added, "Joining a larger industry player like CIBER enables us to fulfill our strategy of broadening our IT services offerings and also working with international customers. CIBER has an excellent reputation for client delivery and we are delighted to be part of the Swedish operations of a credible international player."

CIBER Sweden AB is a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBER Inc. and offers clients a range of IT consultancy and integration services, including SAP, across a number of industry sectors. Following the acquisition of Condevor, the company now has a team of over 180 consultants in Sweden and more than 450 staff in the Nordic region.
